St. James's, November 29.

THIS Day the following Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council aſſembled, was preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. Horatio Walpole, Eſq; Member of Parliament for Norwich, introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Dunmore, Lord of the Bed Chamber in Waiting; which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council aſſembled, moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Arrival into theſe your Dominions; an Event, which muſt at all Times glad the Heart of every true Engliſhman, but eſpecially at this Juncture, after your Majeſty has undergone the Fatigues of War, and expoſed your ſacred Perſon with ſo much Intrepidity to ſo great and imminent Dangers; and this, to ſtem the Torrent of boundleſs Ambition, and preſerve the common Liberties of Europe, muſt warm their Breaſts with the higheſt Senſe of Joy, Gratitude and Duty.

With the moſt ardent and ſincere Wiſhes for the Proſperity of your Majeſty and your Royal Progeny, we beg Leave further to congratulate you on the happy Delivery of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales of a Prince. The Increaſe of your Royal Family we muſt ever look upon as a peculiar Bleſſing of Providence on this Nation, and as the ſureſt Means for the Continuance of our Religion, Rights and Liberties to our lateſt Poſterity.

We muſt beg your Permiſſion likewiſe, Royal Sir, to expreſs our Joy at the Marriage of your Royal Daughter the Princeſs Louiſa with the Prince Royal of Denmark, in which Alliance we can't help obſerving your Majeſty's great Prudence and Care to ſtrengthen and confirm, upon the ſtrongeſt and ſureſt Baſis, the Proteſtant Intereſt in general.

We ſhall ever think ourſelves obliged in Gratitude, as well as Duty, to pray, that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous; that your Care for the Welfare of your Subjects may be ever returned with the moſt dutiful Affection; and that we and our Poſterity may ever be bleſſed by having a Prince deſcending from you in the Poſſeſſion of the Throne of theſe Kingdoms.

Given under our Common Seal at Norwich, the 25th Day of November 1743.

Stockholm, November 4. The Evening before laſt arrived here the Marquis de la Chetardie, in his Way to the Court of Petersbourg, where he is to reſide as his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty's Ambaſſador.

Stockholm, Nov. 8. Yeſterday the Marquis de la Chetardie left this Place, in order to purſue his Journey to Petersbourg through Finland.

Florence, Nov. 12. Prince Lobcowitz waits for Inſtructions by the Return of his Adjutant, whom he diſpatched to Vienna on the Arrival of Count Kaunitz from Turin. The Spaniards are at Peſaro and Fano, where, having received the Artillery and Ammunition from Civita Caſtellana, they are making all poſſible Diſpoſitions apparently with a Deſign to wait Prince Lobcowitz's Arrival, and risk coming to an Engagement; though few People can perſuade themſelves that M. de Gages will keep that Reſolution if the Auſtrians ſhould advance. At the ſame Time that they are making the above Diſpoſitions, their Hoſpital has been ſent to Recanati, and a great many Peaſants are employed in working with the greateſt Diligence on the Fortifications of Civita Caſtellana, where they are laying up very conſiderable Magazines. On the Notice which M. De Gages received, that the Avant Guard

(Price Two-pence.)

Guard of the Auſtrian Army, conſiſting of about 3000 Huſſars and Sclavonians, was advanced from the Cattolica to a little River called Conca, he and the Duke of Modena, at the Head of the whole Army, ſet out from Fano and Peſaro in the Night, and marched in three Columns in order to ſurprize them; but, by extreme heavy Rains and ſtormy Weather, not being able to advance above Four Miles in Six Hours, they were obliged to return back, extremely fatigued, on which Account the Spaniſh General ordered double Pay to his Soldiers. As ſoon as Prince Lobcowitz had Notice of the above Deſign, he ordered his Troops from Forli and Ceſena, with the Artillery, to join the Army at Rimini and the Cattolica. On the 3d Inſtant a ſmall Skirmiſh happened between the Auſtrian Huſſars and the Spaniſh Michelets, near Peſaro, in which many of the latter were killed. M. de Gages has cauſed a particular Account of his Retreat to be diſtributed in ſeveral Parts, in which he lays great Blame on M. Mac Donnel, a Lieutenant General, for not having obeyed the Orders he had given him, and to which M. de Gages attributes the Diſorder, and the great Deſertion that enſued.

Vienna, November 23, N. S. On Tueſday Morning the 19th Inſtant, being the Name-Day of the Empreſs Dowager Elizabeth, after Divine Service had been performed in the Chappel of the Court, her Majeſty the Queen repaired with a great Retinue from her own Apartment, to that of the ſaid Empreſs her Mother, from whence his Excellency Count Sigiſmond Rudolph de Sinzendorff, Great Maſter of the Queen's Houſhold, came forth, and gave publick Notice, that on the 30th of December next enſuing, would be celebrated the Eſpouſals between the moſt ſerene Archducheſs Mary Anne her Majeſty's Siſter, and his moſt ſerene Highneſs Prince Charles of Lorrain, and the Marriage on the 7th of January following.

Hague, Dec. 3, N. S. We have Advice here, that the Biſhop of Liege was ſeized on Saturday laſt with an Apoplectic Fit, which left him ſpeechleſs and ſenſeleſs for ſome Time; and that though he came a little to himſelf again, upon the Application of proper Remedies, he continued in ſo deſperate a Way, that he had had all the Sacraments adminiſtred to him. The laſt German Poſt has brought nothing material. The Elector Palatin is fallen ill of the Small Pox; but he is ſaid to be in no Manner of Danger. The Queen of Poland continues ill, but with a good Proſpect of Recovery.

Hambourg, Dec. 3. Major General Reichel, who had been many Years a State Priſoner at Kiel, was ſet at Liberty the 28th paſt, N. S.

Liege, Dec. 5. The Biſhop of this See died this Morning at Four o'Clock. The Authority of the Privy Council is now at an End. The Chapter is Sovereign, ad interim. All the Poſts of the Government devolve upon them. They have taken Poſſeſſion of the Citadel, and are now employed in ſhutting up the Apartments of the Palace. We hear that the late Biſhop after ſome moderate Legacies to his Relations, has left the reſt of his Eſtate to the Poor of this City. He is to be buried To-morrow.
